Subject: Agreement between the EU and the People's Republic of Bangladesh on certain aspects of air services

The Court of Justice has ruled that certain provisions of bilateral agreements which some Member States have entered into with non-EU countries are incompatible with Union law. An agreement on certain aspects of air services is to be concluded between the EU and Bangladesh in order to provide a viable means of ensuring the necessary consistency, thus enabling air services to be developed between those two parties.

Bearing the above points in mind, what stage has been reached in the negotiations on the future agreement between the EU and the People's Republic of Bangladesh on certain aspects of air services?
