

Question for written answer E-014993/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Doru-Claudian Frunzulică (S&D)

Subject: Financing of terrorist groups

September 11 is one of the most extreme examples of what terrorist activity can do to markets and the banking sector.

After the terrorist attacks in Paris of 13 November, does the Commission plan to recommend new and stricter rules to European governments on verifying transactions that may hide financing for terrorist groups in Europe?