

Question for written answer E-015037/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Victor Negrescu (S&D)

Subject: UK reform demands for EU membership

On 11 November, the UK Prime Minister David Cameron formally set out his demands in a letter to the President of the European Council, stating that four objectives lie at the heart of the UK's renegotiations. What is the Commission's view in relation to the four goals for reforming the UK's membership of the EU, including the restrictions on benefits for people coming to the UK?