Subject: VP/HR - The Iranian nuclear deal and the EU

With the nuclear deal between Iran and the US having come into effect from 18 October, the economic sanctions have been lifted, allowing companies to enter the Iranian market for the first time in almost a decade. While the US will retain some of the sanctions indefinitely in the name of combatting Iran's ties with terrorist organisations, the EU will be able to resume foreign trade with Iran in a range of sectors.

Will the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy ensure that businesses from Europe will be diligent about whom they do business with in Iran?
