

Question for written answer E-015013/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Claudia Tapardel (S&D)

Subject: Green Paper on the Safety of Tourism Accommodation Services

The Green Paper on the Safety of Tourism Accommodation Services was launched by the Commission in July 2014 with the aim of ensuring safe accommodation for tourists.

1. What is the Commission's view on the better sharing and collection of tourism accommodation-related safety incident data, which was not covered by the limited response in the Commission's summary report of 6 March 2015 on the public consultation on the Green Paper?
2. Will the Commission keep this policy under review?
3. Will the Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers retain responsibility within the Commission for the safety of services relating to tourism accommodation within the EU?