

Question for written answer E-015817/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Neoklis Sylikiotis (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Turkish fishing vessels

According to reports in the European and international press, on 13 and December 14 Turkish fishing vessels tried to get in the path of a Russian convoy firstly near the Crimea and secondly close to the island of Lesbos.

What steps will the Commission take to prevent any recurrence of such incidents which pose the risk of an armed confrontation between Turkey and Russia and threaten peace on the continent of Europe?