

Question for written answer E-015236/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Lefteris Christoforou (PPE)

Subject: Violations of Greek and Cypriot airspace by Turkish fighter-planes Turkey, a candidate for accession to the EU, continues to violate the airspace of two EU Member States, Greece and Cyprus, which constitutes a challenge to and a violation of international and European law.

Could the Commission say:

- how it intends to react to the provocations and violations endured by two of its Member States?