

Question for written answer E-015683/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ian Hudghton (Verts/ALE)

Subject: Commission engagement with the Scottish Parliament

In the Commission's 2016 work programme it promises 'further steps to ensure that national parliaments have a strong voice in the European decision-making'. In keeping with the principle of subsidiarity, what plans are in place to ensure that the Scottish Parliament has increased engagement and dialogue with the European Commission?