

Question for written answer E-015598/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Marlene Mizzi (S&D)

Subject: Climate change and human rights

Can the Commission clarify what measures the European Union intends to take to ensure that human rights are respected, protected and fulfilled in the global response to climate change, with particular regard to vulnerable people, especially in countries with limited resources and fragile ecosystems?