

Question for written answer E-016072/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Roberta Metsola (PPE)

Subject: Car import tax

There is currently limited EU legislation dealing with passenger car taxation. It is therefore up to the Member States to lay down national provisions.

Can the Commission provide information on whether EU consumers should pay import tax in two separate Member States if they decide to relocate to another Member State?