

Question for written answer E-015267/2015
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Alberto Cirio (PPE)

Subject: VP/HR - Embargo on Russia

Following the recent developments in the Middle East situation, Russia has become a key partner for a number of Member States in the fight against Daesh.

- Can the High Representative say how one squares shared international policy objectives in one arena with tensions in another?
- Is any thought being given to using means other than economic sanctions to exert pressure on Russia?