

Question for written answer E-015797/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Marc Tarabella (S&D)

Subject: The snippet tax and its impact assessment

Given the opposition of the digital industry, civil society, users, certain newspaper publishers and Parliament to the introduction of a 'snippet tax', a levy on the indexing of news sites, is the Commission willing to exercise transparency and publish its impact assessment prior to making any legislative proposal?