to the Commission
Rule 130
Julie Girling (ECR)

Subject: Mis-sold timeshares

I have been contacted by a number of constituents regarding their timeshares across Europe. Whilst purchased in good faith, it had become apparent that the timeshares were mis-sold. Constituents are finding themselves trapped in contracts charging exorbitant management and other fees which will be passed onto their children.

I understand the Commission was looking into the practical application of Directive 2008/122/EC and had commissioned an external study for this purpose.

Can the Commission please confirm what findings have been made and what action constituents should take if they find themselves victims of such malpractice.
