

Question for written answer E-015789/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Margot Parker (EFDD)

Subject: Child brides in Turkey

I am sure the Commission is aware of a recent report that reveals the existence of more than 180 000 child brides in Turkey.

The same report says that one in five marriages in Turkey involve a minor marrying an older man.

Can the Commission communicate its view on these shocking figures and explain how these revelations may affect the sudden fast-tracking of Turkish accession to the EU?