Subject: Status of REGIO PEER 2 PEER

In March 2015, the Commissioner for Regional Policy, Corina Crețu, officially launched REGIO PEER 2 PEER, the new platform for peer-to-peer dialogue between officials at agencies managing EU funds. The aim is for them to become familiar with good practices from across Europe by means of practical exchanges among more than 24 000 of their peers who manage the European Regional Development Fund and the Cohesion Fund.

Several months after its launch,

What initial results has the programme yielded? How many officials have benefited from these exchanges? In which areas has there been the most interest?
