

Question for written answer E-015966/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Urmas Paet (ALDE)

Subject: Opening the energy chapter with Turkey

Several negotiation chapters of the EU accession negotiations with Turkey have been frozen for years including, among others, the energy chapter. What does the Commission think is the perspective for opening the energy chapter with Turkey? How has the decision to freeze the energy chapter of the accession negotiations damaged the energy security of the EU?