

Question for written answer E-015984/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Use of Interpol's database

The recent tragic events in Paris have shown just how vital it is to compile and cross-reference databases.

1. In this respect, does the Commission have any information to hand on the use made by Member States of Interpol files and how they have contributed to compiling the files?
2. If so, what actions does the Commission intend to take in order to increase interactions between the Member States and Interpol's databases?
