

Question for written answer E-016032/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Diane Dodds (NI)

Subject: Support for Nigerian refugees returning to local communities

In light of indications provided by Nigeria's National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) suggesting that thousands of Christians who had previously fled persecution by terror group Boko Haram are returning to their homelands under a continuing threat, can the Commission please provide an overview of the actions it is taking to support the safe and sustainable resettlement of these refugees?